Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The proviso "when the halocarbon is 1, 1, 1-trifluoro ethane CHFC-143 a), the extractive agent may not be an alcohol" is nowhere in the specification. However, if support can be pointed -out at least the specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter as the above proviso is not positively recited in the specification. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o).

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

a. It is unclear how a mere contracting step in claim 1, e.g., the contacting of the first mixture with an extractive agent produces a second mixture. It is also unclear what constitute the second mixture formed from the contacting step and later being extractively distilled within the context of the claimed invention.

b. Is the "at least one halocarbon of the second mixture" recited in claim 1, lines 6-7 from the bottom different or the same as the initially recited "halocarbon" recited in claim 1, lines 2-5.

Art Unit: 1764

c. It is not clear as to what constitute the extractive distillation agent in the step of "extractively distilling the second mixture" and the products produced by this step. They should be specified in the claims for completeness.

d. The "extractive agent" recited I, claim 8, lacks antecedent support.

e. An azeotrope is normally defined by its composition and pressure parameters, but which parameters are not recited in claim 11.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The above document discloses the use of hydrocarbon the agent in an extractive distillation process.

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mahler et al in view of EP '362.

The above references are applied for the same combined reasons as set forth at the paragraph bridging pages 4-5 of the previous Office action.

Applicant's arguments filed January 30, 2002 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Contrary to applicants' assertion, claim 1 recitation of "alcohols having represented by the formula $C_x H_{2x+1} O H$ where x is from 1 to 3" does not exclude the alcohol e.g., methanol ethanol and propanol of Mahler et al.

However, EP '362 feed material including materials belonging the same ~~group~~^{classified} hydrocarbon as the claimed invention and lines the same agents e.g. uses a hydrocarbons, alcohols and Ketones for in the same purification process.
